

Welcome Prosper to the Bayview Family

As of July 2, 2009 former Prosper Credit Union members have now been welcomed into the fold of the Bayview Credit Union Family.

The account conversion process took place on July 1 and we would like to thank all Bayview and former Prosper staff who have worked so diligently to ensure the amalgamation went smoothly. We would also like to thank all former Prosper members who have been so supportive and understanding during some technical challenges we have been working on.

It's good to now all be together and on the same page in building and supporting our credit union. Remember Bayview when you are looking for loans or mortgages which will pay you back some of your interest; for account service packages that cost less and give more; for investments with the bonus of patronage shares; or for a year-round income tax service second to none.

We are all looking forward to Bayview and Prosper Growing Together.

Men of the Deeps - A Great Success!

On June 20, just in time for Fathers Day, Bayview Credit Union sponsored two concerts for the Men of the Deeps - an afternoon performance at Bethany Bible College in Sussex and an evening performance at the Imperial Theatre in Saint John. All profits went to the RCR Education Fund for the Children of Fallen Soldiers. This event was conceived of and organized by Bayview member Lloyd Benson, whose son is in the Canadian Armed Forces. He approached our Sussex branch Manager Terry Craig and the rest, as they say, is history.

Both concerts were a great success. Everyone enjoyed the touching and entertaining performance of the Men of the Deeps, and audiences also learned about the mining traditions in the Maritimes. Many members of the Armed Forces attended, including some young soldiers who had just returned to Canada. At the Imperial, Major Joe Hartson from C.F.B. Gagetown presented plaques of appreciation to the Men of the Deeps, Lloyd Benson & Bayview CEO Anna Florczynski.

In all Bayview is proud to announce that the two concerts raised $7,000 for the Education Fund. Special thanks go out to Lloyd Benson and Terry Craig for all their hard work to make sure this event was such a great success.

Seven Words Will WIN!

“There is a Difference” between Bayview and the banks! And we would like you to tell us what it is! Can you describe Bayview in seven words or less? We are looking for the best description of the credit union. Or tell us how you feel about Bayview or how Bayview makes you feel. The best entry will receive $100. We will also publish as many as possible in an ad for Credit Union Day to tell the world what you think the difference is between your credit union and other financial institutions! Just fill in the attached ballot, pick up a ballot at any branch or enter online at www.bayviewnb.com (select “Contact Us”, then select “Comments & Suggestions” and title your email “7 words”). The contest ends on October 1.

Bayview Proudly Presents the 2009 Scholarship Recipients

In 2009, New Brunswick Credit Unions will award over $50,000 in scholarships. Besides offering excellent financial services, this is what NB credit unions are all about - community support and involvement, especially to this province's youth.

Bayview Credit Union is proud to play a part in this commitment to our youth. Bayview awards six $1,000 Roy Mackin Memorial Education Awards each year. These awards are named in honour of Bayview CEO Roy Mackin, who helped Bayview grow from $3million in assets and two branches to $152million and six branches from 1978 to 2003. Our 2009 recipients are pictured here, left to right: Bayview's Education Awards Committee Chairperson

Elizabeth Chisholm presented cheques to Landon MacDonald, Jillian Coleman, Natasha Coakley, Danna-Leigh Holteen and Melanie Collrin and Education Awards Committee Member Shirlee Coleman presented a cheque to Jaclyn Phillips. Bayview congratulates all the recipients and wishes them all the best in the furthering of their education and in their careers to follow

We invite all interested Bayview Credit Union members who wish to continue their learning with post-secondary education to apply next year for one of Bayview's six 2010 Education Awards. You will find the application on our website at bayviewnb.com.
